Markus Oswald Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Markus Oswald has been Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and member of the Management Board of Tele Columbus AG since February 2023. He manages all group functions and is responsible for the strategic and operative development of the company.

Before joining Tele Columbus AG, Oswald held a variety of senior management positions at Vodafone GmbH and, before its acquisition by Vodafone, Kabel Deutschland AG from 2006. At Vodafone, he headed up the real estate division and managed collaboration with housing providers on multimedia delivery. Oswald's responsibilities at Kabel Deutschland AG included managing consumer sales in bricks-and-mortar retail and D2D direct sales.

His CV also includes positions at Unitymedia in Cologne and at DeTeKabelService in Bonn and Hamburg. Oswald studied at Gerhard Mercator University of Duisburg and Sheffield City Polytechnic and has a degree in economics.
