

Markus Hottenrott Member of the Supervisory Board

Personal details

Year of birth	1970
Nationality	German
Place of residence	New York

Supervisory board member, Tele Columbus AG

Initial appointment	10/2025
Appointed until	07/2031

Professional positions and career

Current position

Managing Director and Chief Investment Officer of Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners (MSIP)

Professional career

2006	Part of the Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners (MSIP) team (initially London, since 2017 New York)
2004	Co-head of the European transport and infrastructure group in Morgan Stanley's investment banking division (London)
1998	After two years in debt capital markets, focus in investment banking division on the public transport and infrastructure sector (Frankfurt)
Qualifications	Studied law at the Universities of Heidelberg, Dresden and Munich Doctoral thesis at Humboldt University in Berlin

Other mandates

No memberships in other supervisory boards required by law

No memberships in comparable domestic and foreign supervisory bodies of commercial enterprises